Customisable stand

Offer your exhibitors the most detailed and comprehensive data they ever had including visitors' profiles, number of shown interests and much more information. More than ever your exhibitors will be able to measure their ROI.

CORPORATE GIFTS FULFILLMENT

Add a tangible experience to your virtual event by sending an “event box” to the remote participants, prior to the event. A simple coffee they can prepare at home or a snack to be savoured during the virtual coffee break can make the difference. A small gesture can result in transformative experiences and meaningful connections.
